

Most of my friends and family members are fed spiritually each day by the songs, messages and prayer offered on K-Love radio. For my 13 year old son and I, it has been the only station we have listened to for nearly 3 years. K-Love radio has helped us to connect at a very difficult time in his life. With so many things working against our youth today, K-Love offers what they really need, a lot of encouragement, praise & direction. K-Love radio is one of the very few programs I have ever heard that is truly "family friendly", one that actually contributes a positive message to all listeners (Christians and non-Christians). Please do not take this away from the thousands of listeners who have come to rely on the encouraging message provided by K-Love each day. I believe in the power of this station and what they are doing enough to financially support their broadcast each month. In my opinion, K-Love is a great example of what quality listening is all about.

Thanking you in advance for thoughtfully considering my comments in regards to this issue.

Sincerely,
